Headline:
Sunshine and showers today. Risk of hail and thunder.

Today:
After a chilly start, it will be another day of sunshine and showers. The showers will be heavy at times, with the risk of hail and thunder. The showers may turn a little wintry at times over higher ground. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Any showers should gradually ease during the evening to leave most places dry with some clear spells overnight. Turning chilly, with patchy frost and fog in some prone rural spots. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Saturday:
After a dry start, cloud and rain will arrive from the south by mid-morning and spread northwards across all parts during the afternoon. Windy and locally gusty. Rain clearing overnight. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
A band of showery rain moving slowly southeast on Sunday. Staying unsettled into next week with a mixture of sunny spells and scattered showers, heavy and possibly thundery at times.
